听写正文 / QUESTIONS 01–30

P01 What's up, sunshine? I'm Coy Wire. This is CNN 10. Today we are traveling from the birth of movies to a telescope, looking back toward the birth of the universe.

P02 History, mystery, and a whole lot of curiosity. Let's get smarter. Lights, camera, action.

P03 129 years ago today, one of history's most famous inventors helped shape the future of motion pictures. On August 31st, 1897, Thomas Edison received a [01] _____ for his motion picture camera, the Kinetograph, predecessor to modern projectors. It was cutting-edge technology for its time, capturing a rapid sequence of images onto strips of celluloid film.

P04 And when those pictures were viewed rapidly, one after another, bam, your brain [02] _____. While Edison is credited with the patent, here is your history knowledge bomb. Edison didn't do it alone.

P05 His assistant, William Kennedy Laurie Dickson, is credited with the bulk of the [03] _____ and development, a reminder that some of history's greatest individual inventions were actually team sports. The Kinetograph helped pave the way for the development of movie projectors, theaters, and the entertainment experience we know and love today. Somewhere Edison's probably like, I should have patented popcorn, too.

P06 A new eye in the sky has just launched into the cosmos.To help us better understand the mysteries of space, the Nancy Grace Roman Space Telescope blasted off Sunday from Kennedy Space Center aboard a SpaceX Falcon Heavy rocket. Over the next five years, the bus-sized telescope will seek out otherwise [04] _____ and faint space objects.

P07 And liftoff. Go Falcon Heavy and go Roman Space Telescope. And liftoff.

P08 Is basically cosmic panorama mode. Roman is able to survey the sky up to 1,000 times faster than the famous Hubble telescope across a [05] _____ about a hundred times larger, and it's expected to help answer some of science's biggest questions about dark matter and dark energy.

P09 U.S. President Donald Trump has signed an [06] _____ beginning the process of creating a new U.S. Space Academy.

P10 Think Naval Academy with a lot more rocket science. The proposed Academy would recruit and train [07] _____, physicists, engineers, and aerospace technicians, among others. The president announced the move in Houston, Texas, while presenting the Artemis 2 crew with the Congressional Space Medal of Honor.

P11 He said the U.S. Space Academy would train personnel for the Space Force and NASA, while also supporting the civilian space industry like SpaceX and Blue Origin. Important distinction, the executive order creates a [08] _____ to figure out how to make the Academy happen.

P12 To Nepal now, where as of this taping,more than 3,000 people are reported missing after that [09] _____ and landslide along the Chinese-Nepali border.

P13 The death toll has risen to at least 750 people. Rescue crews are running into changing landscapes, as another landslide on Saturday created a new [10] _____ near the disaster zone. The rescuers, themselves, had to be evacuated from the area.

P14 Almost a thousand workers are also missing across a slew of [11] _____ in Nepal. In one of the tunnels, rescuers are pumping air in and dropping food, but haven't connected with anyone inside yet. Among the missing are foreign nationals from around the world.

P15 CNN's Will Ripley found one American couple who [12] _____ the flood while on a tour bus.

P16 It was violent. It was aggressive. [13] _____ with anger. That's how I saw the water come. So I really asked him, I mean, why is God so angry with us?

P17 Anjana Raja and Putupi Venkatesan came to Nepal from Northern California for a [14] _____, but not one like this.

P18 Just seeing so many people die, I think that's going to last for a while. It's going to [15] _____ for a while. I don't know if we will get over it anytime soon.

P19 They were on a tour bus near the China-Nepal border, about to cross into Tibet, when people outside started running and screaming. There was no time to think. Our [16] _____ needed to be so fast.

P20 I saw something coming really brown up there going up like 60 to 70 feet, something coming brown our way. At that point, I didn't know whether it was water or whether it was dust. So the way it came is came just like a tsunami, just came going all the way up.

P21 And just like a tsunami, how it sweeps going like a row, it just took the buses, the houses, people, everything.

P23 It's very hard to express in words. A lot of [17] _____ inside. It was nerve-wracking, especially when you see death just five seconds away from you. I thought about everybody who lost their lives there.

P24 He's a lifesaver, my brother. Their [18] _____, Dashi Tumang, guided them up the mountain with just seconds to spare.

P25 How can running, you know? Just running, just running. 10 seconds, it's finished. 10 seconds, everything's underwater. Oh my God, oh my God.

P26 After running to [19] _____, they spent the night huddling in the woods with a small group of survivors.

P27 There are about 70, 80 people in that little area. We got to put our bags, sit on the bag. That's about it. You know, we had like two inch [20] _____. We couldn't move more than two inches because it was so full. Water all night, little or no food. We had to share water, whoever had water.

P28 Finally, a [21] _____ came to rescue them.

P29 And here you are now, and you have your [22] _____. You're going to go home and see your daughter and your son. I can't wait.

P30 Can't wait. What do you want to say to them? What are you going to do when you see them? I'm going to hug them and cry because I am an emotional mama. I am going to hug them and cry.

P31 And I'm just thankful to God that I'm alive and there for them. I'm going to tell them, take life seriously and be ready for whatever comes. This is a learning. Things could happen to anyone. It could happen to us again. So be ready. I'm going to tell them that.

P32 10 Second Trivia.What year was Little League Baseball founded?

P33 1924, 1939, 1953, or 1961? Tick, tick, tick, tick.

P34 If you said 1939, play ball. Little League was founded by Carl E. Stotz in Williamsport, Pennsylvania. It's become a global sensation, played by [23] _____ 2 million 10 to 12-year-olds across 80 different countries.

P35 This year's Little League Baseball World Series is officially in the books. Congrats to Curacao capturing its second Little League World Series championship after [24] _____ Nevada. The Caribbean powerhouse punched its ticket after shutting out Japan for nothing in the international championship.

P36 Curacao is the only Caribbean nation ever to win the Little League Baseball World Series. Nevada reached the final after beating Ohio 12 to 2 in Saturday's U.S. championship game. That's where 12-year-old Carsynn Meyer became the first girl ever to play in the U.S. championship game.

P37 And she drove in a run. How's that for seizing your moment? The Little League World Series is an [25] _____ that we're never too young to chase greatness.
